1	When I am in a crowded grocery store, I can hear and understand the cashier.
2	I miss a lot of information when listening to a lecture or listening to a sermon.
3	Unexpected sounds, like an alarm bell or a smoke detector, are uncomfortable.
4	I have difficulty hearing conversation when at home with one of my family members.
5	I have trouble understanding dialogue in a television show or movie.
6	When I am listening to the news on the radio in the car, and other people in the car are talking, I have trouble hearing the radio.
7	It is difficult to have a conversation with one person when at dinner with a group.
8	Traffic noises are too loud.
9	When I am talking to someone across a big, empty room, I can understand the words.
10	In a small office setting, interviewing or answering questions, I have difficulty following the conversation.
11	When I watch a movie in the theater, I can still hear dialogue even if people around me are whispering or opening snacks.
12	I have difficulty hearing and understanding when having a quiet conversation with a friend.
13	The sounds of running water in a shower or toilet are uncomfortably loud.
14	When a speaker is addressing a small group and everyone is listening quietly, I have to strain to understand.
15	It is hard to understand quiet, private conversation with my doctor when in the exam room.
16	I can understand conversations even when several people are talking.
17	The sounds of construction work are uncomfortably loud.
